	Day	Date	Prompt	Tip
☐	1	Sat Feb 6	A goat to start the year	Any style you like: ink, pattern, cartoon, or a careful study. 2027 is the Year of the Goat.
☐	2	Sun Feb 7	A red envelope	A hongbao, closed or just opened, with a simple gold design.
☐	3	Mon Feb 8	Paper lanterns	A string of lanterns, or one lantern close up, lit from inside.
☐	4	Tue Feb 9	Dumplings	A plate of jiaozi, or hands folding one. Steam is welcome.
☐	5	Wed Feb 10	A lion dance	The lion costume's head, or two dancers lifting it in a street.
☐	6	Thu Feb 11	Firecrackers, after the pop	Red paper scraps on the ground, or a string of firecrackers before they are lit. Keep it festive, not frightening.
☐	7	Fri Feb 12	Plum blossoms	A few branches, flowers, and buds. Leave lots of open space.
☐	8	Sat Feb 13	The reunion dinner	A full table, or one dish that matters in your family.
☐	9	Sun Feb 14	Oranges and tangerines	A bowl of fruit with leaves still on, bright against a simple cloth.
☐	10	Mon Feb 15	A goat in a second style	Try the opposite of day 1: if you went cute, go bold; if you went careful, go loose.
☐	11	Tue Feb 16	Door couplets or decorations	Red paper with writing, or a decorated doorway ready for visitors.
☐	12	Wed Feb 17	A sweet for the season	Nian gao, tangyuan, or another New Year sweet you know.
☐	13	Thu Feb 18	A parade or dragon dance	A long dragon in a street, or one section of the dance close up.
☐	14	Fri Feb 19	Visiting family	Shoes by a door, a tray of fruit, or people arriving with bags and envelopes.
☐	15	Sat Feb 20	The Lantern Festival	Lanterns at night, a riddle tag, or a bowl of tangyuan to close the season. February 20 is the 15th day of the first lunar month.
